

The Students and Families in Transition Program

DO YOU LIVE AT A TEMPORARY ADDRESS?

You may have important school rights that you might not know about.

Have you heard about the McKinney-Vento Act?

The McKinney-Vento Act is a federal law which provides educational support for students experiencing homelessness.

Have you recently been displaced from your home?

The definition of "homeless" includes living situations where a student may be staying in: a shelter, hotel/motel, vehicle, substandard housing or even doubled up living with friends or relatives (due to loss of housing or financial hardship).

Did you know that our program can provide students with services?

Some of those services include assistance with enrollment, transportation, school of origin rights, backpacks, school supplies, toiletries, uniforms and much more.
