The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens

1. Be Proactive: Take Responsibility for Your Life

Parents - Check agenda nightly to support my learning at home

Teacher - Write homework and agenda on board daily

Student - Copy homework and complete all assignments

2. Begin with the End in Mind: Define Your Mission and Goals in Life

Parent - Check Edline weekly and seek help from the school if needed

Teacher - Update Edline every Tuesday

Student - Check Edline and be aware of one's grades and progress

3. Put First Things First: Prioritize, and Do the Most Important Things First

Parent - Consistently monitor academic and behavior performance

Teacher - Contact several parents every week about student performance

Students - Try my best at all times and behave responsibly

4. Think Win-Win: Have an Everyone-Can-Win Attitude

Parent - Attend family involvement nights

Teacher - Help develop leadership days and informational nights for the parents

Student - Keep my leadership binder up-to-date

5. Seek first to Understand, Then to Be Understood: Listen to People Sincerely

Parent - Communicate with school on ways to increase learning

Teacher - Listen to the parents' suggestions on how to help children succeed

Student - Agree to follow any plan developed by teachers and/or parents to help me succeed

6. Synergize: Work Together to Achieve More

Parent - Communicate with school on ways to increase learning

Teacher - Communicate with students and parents about expectations and opportunities for learning

Student - Make sure all forms of communication between the school, teacher, and parents are delivered in a timely manner.

7. Sharpen the Saw: Renew Yourself Regularly

Parent - Take time to enjoy an activity

Teacher - Enjoy Tiger Palooza with the students

Student - Enjoy a family activity and Tiger Palooza with teachers

Effective School-Parent Compact for Student Achievement Are:

- Link to goals of the school improvement plan
- Focus on student learning skills
- Describe how teachers will help students develop skills using quality instruction
- Share strategies parents can use at home
- Explain how teachers and parents will communicate about student progress

Fox Chapel Middle School is committed to frequent two-way communication with families about children's learning. Some of the ways you can expect us to communicate are:

- Agenda notes
- Personal phone calls from teachers
- Flyers/invitations sent with the student or mailed home
- Remind/Class Dojo Apps
- Parent-teacher conferencing

Parents can contact their child's teacher by phone to learn more about their child's progress at 352-797-7025 or by e-mail; addresses are posted on the school's web site.

Fox Chapel Middle School SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT FOR STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

What is a School-Parent Compact for Student Achievement?

A School-Parent Compact for Student Achievement is an agreement that parents, students and teachers jointly develop. It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all of our students reach high academic achievement.

The parents, students and staff at Fox Chapel Middle School developed this School-Parent Compact for Student Achievement. The School Improvement Plan was used to make the compact more specific in meeting the needs of our school and the needs of individual students.
